ANCA had several issues with Beta Iota and Brother Tony Caldwell is no longer serving as the chapter's advisor. Brother Clevell Roseboro was asked to step into this role pending approval by Brother District Director Carl Pickney.

ANCA Convention Report (Brothers Burris, Keith Ferguson, Garcia, Hargrove and Travis)

Overall, the convention went very well.

More than 50 brothers attended the investiture service of Brother Everett B. Ward as the eleventh president of St. Augustine's University on Friday, October 30.

There were business sessions on Friday and Saturday along with competitions for the college and alumni chapters.

The State of the Southern Region address was given by Brother Regional Vice President Ronald M. Natson. Among the highlights were:

- The 2016 Regional Convention will convene in Atlanta, Georgia beginning Thursday March 4 and ending Sunday, March 7.
- The 6th Annual Southern Region College Brother Empowerment Retreat will be from Friday, January 29 until Sunday, January 31 in Birmingham, Alabama.

The State of the District address was given by Brother District Director Pickney. The highlights included:

- The current situations of the Beta Epsilon and Beta Iota chapters was revisited.
- Chapters will be more responsible for their respective financial statuses due to directives by the national office.

Most of the costs for the conference went toward the Carolina Theatre, putting the conference into a deficit; the convention center and conference hotels were also factors in the overruns. Other raised costs came from a lack of intake fees from Area 2 and Area 5.

Brother Tejaun Manners (Phi Lambda) was elected as the next District Director. He will be installed at the Regional Convention in March.

Brothers Robert Sakaguchi and Burley Levette competed in the Hobart Jarrett Debate, and Brother Noah Williamson competed during the Belford V. Lawson Oratorical Contest. Brother Sakaguchi also won the Leonard Cortez Leadership Award.

Brother Travis extended thanks to Brothers Sellars and Garcia for serving on the Awards Committee.

Various proposals, such as combining the College Brother Empowerment Retreat with the regional convention and holding district conference every other year, are up for discussion.

Greensboro will host the 2016 ANCA Conference, but the dates will not be announced until the hotel reservations have been finalized.
